Outsourcing Today, together with Fine Law, organize 2017 Retrospective in Labor Legislation on February 15, 2018 at Caro Hotel Bucharest, a knowledge sharing event dedicated to the latest significant changes to tax and social security legislation. The event will include a review of the legislative changes in 2017 in the field of labor law, the areas of investigation by the Labor Inspectorate of Bucharest in the control activity carried out in 2017, the most recent solutions pronounced by the courts in this matter and a review of European legislation in the matter of labor law. We will analyze the new compliance obligations required by those changes.

The two panels discussions will provide participants with an overview of the main tax regulations and their effects in the current economic context. We'll approach subjects such as:

- ✓ New legislation such as statutory social contribution and its impact on the employers and the employees and value added tax (VAT) split payment, corporate income tax etc.
- ✓ The Labor Inspectorate of Bucharest control activity
- ✓ Court sentences in labor conflicts

The session brings together executives from SSC, ITO, BPO organizations and renowned legal and fiscal advisors to evaluate the current frames and discuss practical examples and solutions to the problems generated by the legislation in force.
